From the Back Cover

Right about now. You're worried about that big Biology quiz. Man, I hope I studied enough. Before it starts, you remind yourself: Psalm 32:8. And you aren't quite so stressed out about it because you know that God's there with you, no matter what. Phew. Glad that's over. Then there's lunch. After a slice of soggy pizza, some jerk steals your backpack with all your books and papers. @%#@$%#! You're totally ticked and you sort of want to kick something, but right about now, you find yourself recalling—from out of the blue—2 Thes. 3.3, “But the Lord is faithful, and he will strengthen and protect you. . .” Wow, where'd that come from? Sound far-fetched? It is but it isn't. You see, that's why we have God's Word—to change our day-to-day lives. The verses you'll memorize really will change the way you live your life. So get the Bible off your shelf and in your heart—where it belongs.
