Editorial Review

From School Library Journal

PreS-Gr 2 The narrator explains that at times he feels like a big boy but at others like a little boy. He feels like a big boy when he dresses himself or when he prepares his own breakfast. He feels like a little boy when his bed is wet in the morning, when his mother punishes him and when he gets lost at the grocery store. Alluring pastel illustrations complement this story of a child's feelings about growing up.
