One in a Million By Kimberla Lawson Roby

A poignant and satisfying story of hope, Kimberla Lawson Roby's One in a Million beautifully shows us the difference between what we think we want and what we actually need to be truly happy.

Kennedi Mason thinks she's the luckiest woman on earth. She loves her job, she has a wonderful best friend, and she's been married for ten years to her soul mate. There's nothing she can think of that could make her life any better.

Then one fateful day Kennedy receives a piece of news that will turn her world upside down. She's excited about it, and she knows that her husband, Blake, will be over the moon. He has always dreamed of this one thing happening, and she can't wait until he comes home so she can tell him.

But when she sees Blake that evening, he has a special announcement of his own. It shocks Kennedy into silence and wipes the admission she was planning to make right out of her mind. In an instant, her life and her marriage have changed, but not at all in the way that she had expected.

Mary Bessler:

As a college student exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library or to make summary for some book, they are complained. Just tiny students that has reading's soul or real their hobby. They just do what the professor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading really. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring and also can't see colorful pictures on there. Yeah, it is to be complicated. Book is very important for you. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this One in a Million can make you feel more interested to read.
