Editorial Review

About the Author

Jodi Dawson spent years dreaming about happily ever after before realising she could make it happen, in life, as well as in her books. Having lived in over ten of the United States, and a year in South Korea, she has a passion for travel and adventure. She has been a teacher, retail manager, amusement park employee, and goat milker, but now follows her heart and writes romantic fiction. Her most sincere desire is to bring a smile to the reader's face and have them finish her books feeling refreshed and believing in every possibility.
