Editorial Review

Review

"This impressive anthology fills a major gap in the English-language scholarship to date on Swedish cinema, charting well beyond the usual Bergman-dominant territory. The wide-ranging articles bring a wealth of cultural studies, institutional, and genre-focused approaches to more than a century of Swedish film history. Swedish Film is an invaluable resource to scholars and teachers of Nordic and European cinema." —Arne Lunde, University of California

"This volume still succeeds in offering a wide yet concise history of Swedish film, taking us from the silents up until transnational aspects of recent moving image culture." —Maaret Koskinen, professor, Stockholm University
