Penguin Great Loves Magnetism By F Scott Fitzgerald

Film star George Hannaford oozes charm. Although women fall at his feet, his marriage is the most solid in the movie business. But when he sees his wife staring into another man's eyes and returns home to a blackmailer demanding fifty thousand dollars, he begins to doubt everything. United by the theme of love, the writings in the Great Loves series span over two thousand years and vastly different worlds. Readers will be introduced to love's endlessly fascinating possibilities and extremities: romantic love, platonic love, erotic love, gay love, virginal love, adulterous love, parental love, filial love, nostalgic love, unrequited love, illicit love, not to mention lost love, twisted and obsessional love...

Editorial Review

About the Author

F.Scott Fitzgerald (1896-1940) was born in St Paul, Minnesota. He is regarded as one of the greatest American writers of the twentieth century. He was said to have epitomised the Jazz Age, which he himself defined as 'a generation grown up to find all Gods dead, all wars fought, all faiths in man shaken'. In 1920 he married Zelda Sayre. Their traumatic marriage and subsequent breakdowns became the leading influence in his writing. Among his publications were five novels, This Side of Paradise, The Great Gatsby, The Beautiful and the Damned, Tender is the Night and The Last Tycoon (his last and unfinished work); six volumes of short stories and The Crack-Up, a selection of autobiographical pieces.

Johnnie Colby:

As a university student exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library or make summary for some reserve, they are complained. Just tiny students that has reading's heart or real their hobby. They just do what the professor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading really. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring in addition to can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever we wish. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Penguin Great Loves Magnetism can make you sense more interested to read.

Ann Cason:

What is your hobby? Have you heard which question when you got pupils? We believe that that question was given by teacher for their students. Many kinds of hobby, Every individual has different hobby. And you also know that little person like reading or as reading become their hobby. You must know that reading is very important in addition to book as to be the point. Book is important thing to provide you knowledge, except your personal teacher or lecturer. You will find good news or update concerning something by book. Many kinds of books that can you take to be your object. One of them are these claims Penguin Great Loves Magnetism.
