Editorial Review

Review

"A pioneering volume. Emilsson does justice to the fluidity that must accompany any reading of the Enneads, without thereby shirking the need for emphasizing Plotinus' fundamental intuitions concerning the admittedly almost inexplicable unity of knowing and being that constitutes the Intellect." --Ancient Philosophy

"...a fine work which deserves to become a point of reference for anyone working in the field."--Suzanne Stern-Gillet, Notre Dame Philosophical Reviews

"All Neoplatonic scholars will derive great benefit from Emilsson's thoughtful and mature treatment of some of the most intractable topics in Plotinus' philosophy."--John Bussanich, The Classical Review
